Dull, Sluggish Feeling

"BLACK-DRAUGHT is our household stand-by," says Mrs. Thomas H. Kell, who lives near Ellijay, Ga. "We have been using it years and years. My mother's family used it and we do here and my four sisters do, too.

"I could not run my house without Black-Draught. I give it to the children whenever they need a purgative, and both Mr. Kell and myself take it. As a medicine for sluggish liver and headache, and the ills that come with constipation, Black-Draught is fine.

"Lots of times I have felt dull and sluggish, my head would ache and I had to make a great effort to do my work. A little dose of Black-Draught would correct this feeling. We always keep it on the medicine shelf."

Be sure that you get Thedford's, the old, reliable Black-Draught powdered herb liver medicine. At all dealers.

SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Williamsburg. — Work has been started here on the $100,000 Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Building, the interior of which will be a replica of the famous Apollo room of Raleigh Tavern, in which the society was organized.

Charlottesville.—Dr. Harold Lee Alden, assistant professor of astronomy of the University of Virginia and research assistant of the Leander McCormick Observatory, has accepted an offer from Yale University to go to South Africa as director of an observatory to be established there.

Salem. — Isaac Cooper, colored, was found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of his step-daughter, Australia Wiley, 16, September 3 last, by a jury in Roanoke County Circuit Court here, and was given the death penalty. The trial attracted a crowded court room of both white and colored.

Salem. — Isaac Cooper, colored, convicted of the murder of his step-daughter, Australia Wiley, was sentenced to be electrocuted on March 16, by Judge Gregory, of Roanoke Circuit Court. This is the first death penalty passed at Salem since electrocution for capital crime went into effect in Virginia about twenty-five years ago.

Woodstock.—The sale of the interest of J. D. Manor in the Shenandoah Caverns, located between Mt. Jackson and New Market, to his partner, Hunter B. Chapman, for $140,000, constitutes one of the largest realty deals ever consummated in the Valley. Mr. Manor will retire from the partnership because of other business interests.

Danville. — Rev. C. F. Coleman, who died at the age of 77, after 51 years' consecutive service in Piney Grove Baptist Church, was buried in Halifax on Friday. He was a son of Dr. Gordon Coleman, of Halifax, being born in 1848. Piney Grove Church, which he served so long and in the cemetery of which he was interred, was erected on a tract of land where the minister was born. He had been ill for six weeks.

Emporia.—Adjutant-General W. W. Sale has advised the secretary of the Emporia Board of Trade that one field piece has been awarded the town as a war trophy. Colonel E. E. Goodwyn, member of the State Board of distribution, stated that the committee is awarding one of these field pieces to each town that furnished a National Guard unit for the World War. The gun will be erected on the Courthouse Square.

Fredericksburg.—Judge R. H. L. Chichester, in the Circuit Court of King George, has entered a decree in the case of Mrs. Margaret T. Turner against R. V. Turner, giving Mrs. Turner judgment in the amount of $666 against her husband, and directing that the handsome Colonial estate of the Turners, "Woodlawn," located on the Rappahannock River, near Port Conway, in King George county, be sold. The farm contains 620 acres.

Danville.—News has been received here of the death near Mitchell's Ford, Carroll county, of Bruce Noble, who was crushed to death beneath his car when it overturned. His body was found by passers-by, who notified the sheriff of the county. The official claims to have found twenty-one gallons of liquor in the car. The body was taken to Hillsville, where identification was made by his wife, who journeyed there from Franklin county.

Staunton. — Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the Carpenter building, with its contents, in the town of Weyers Cave, this county. The loss is estimated at $20,000, the majority, covered by insurance. Pittsugh & Lee's mercantile store, Wampler's electric house and the Weyers Cave Restaurant were destroyed. Fire apparatus from Staunton made the fourteen mile trip in response to a call for assistance, but a hurriedly organized bucket brigade had the flames under control when the firemen reached the scene.

Ashland.—Decision has been made by the Hanover County Board of Supervisors to continue home demonstration work among the colored people of the county. They are nearly 8,000 colored people in Hanover county, with home demonstration work being in charge of Mrs. Mariah Allen. Mrs. Willie G. Fears, of Green Bay, Va., is the industrial supervisor for the colored school children of the county, working under the joint direction of the State Board of Education and the Hanover County School Board.

Freeling.—Mrs. Lovina Stanley, of Nashe, Dickenson county, 100 years old on last Tuesday, on which day a family reunion was held. The eldest of her children to attend was 78. She came with her parents from North Carolina, in which State she was born, at an early age, and has resided near Nobis ever since. During the War Between the States the walked to Saltville, and carried a load of salt back aland on her shoulder, the distance being 150 miles.

Winchester. — In compliance with a wish, often made during his lifetime, funeral services for Stover Lewis, 80, one of the oldest members of the Friendship Fire Company, were held in the company's hall, with a large gathering of firemen and other friends in attendance. Rev. Robert B. Nelson, of Christ Episcopal Church, officiated. It was said to have been the first funeral service ever held in a fire engine house here.

Ashland. — Intercollegiate debating will occupy a prominent place in the student activities of Randolph-Macon College for the winter and spring terms. The debate council, composed of Harold H. Hughes, of Richmond, chairman; R. F. Duncan, Hopewell; Ivan Butterworth, Dinwiddie; St. George T. Arnold, Lynchburg, and Jesse Eazle, Shenandoah Junction, W. Va., are negotiating with Hampden-Sidney for a contest on February 6.

Lynchburg.—Dr. A. S. Priddy, 59, superintendent of the State Epileptic Colony, located near Lynchburg, died at the Virginia Baptist Hospital of Hodgkin's disease. He was a native of Charlotte county and had been superintendent of the State colony since 1910, having been the only head of the institution. He was superintendent of the Southwestern State Hospital, at Marion, prior to taking charge of the colony. He was a psychiatrist and recognized authority on mental diseases.

Winchester.—Wheat was bringing $2 a bushel here Tuesday for the first time in a number of years. The best brands of winter wheat flour were retailing at $10.50 per barrel. Since the peak of war-time prices were reached, when the government guaranteed the price of wheat as an emergency measure, the grain has sold as low as 85 cents per bushel. There has been a steady rise for the past two months. Certain other farm products also are bringing higher prices, 19 cents a pound being paid for lambs, and wool is ranging from 45 to 50 cents per pound.

Danville.—A new use for gasoline by farmers has been discovered by Henry Gerringer, an Alamance county, N. C., farmer, according to neighbors who came here to sell their tobacco. A few days ago he prepared a tobacco plant bed, and, after upturning the soil, saturated it with the motor fuel and then put a match to it. The land burned for thirty minutes, destroying insects and larva, thus preparing the bed for the seed much more quickly than by the old-fashioned method. So far as known, this is the first plant bed burned out for next year's crop in the contiguous tobacco area.

Gordonsville.—A novel case was decided in the Circuit Court at Orange Courthouse this term, when a jury freed H. S. Hubbard, a traveling salesman from Richmond, on the charge of larceny of a German police dog, the property of Mrs. W. W. Osborne, of Gordonsville. Evidence at the trial showed that Hubbard had taken the dog into his car empty, where on the road between Gordonsville and Barboursville, and, after making inquiries as to its ownership, at Barboursville and Orange, had taken it to his home, in Richmond. Mr. Hubbard's defense was that he thought the dog was lost, and that he was merely keeping it for its owner. The dog has been returned to Mrs. Osborne.

New Market.—After exploring two days' the Endless Caverns, just south of here, in an attempt to find the "end," the party of worldfamed scientists are uncertain as to whether their object had been attained and decided to leave the caves to return later in the spring with more equipment to resume their task. The quest resulted in the discovery of a second chamber since the exploration began and this was made possible only after the party had proceeded a mile from the known chambers and a number of dangerous passageways. It was here that the explorers, headed by Cravath Wells, decided to halt their present investigations. A close study will be made of the various formations found in the newly discovered chambers and the announcement of the findings will be announced later, it was stated by the explorers.

Charlottesville. — Applicants for admission to the University of Virginia Law School must offer thirty session hours or college work, according to announcement made by William Minor Lile, dean of the department of law. This increase in entrance requirements has been made to carry out recently adopted regulations of the association of American Law Schools, of which the university is a member, and will be in effect with the opening of the next session of 1925-26 in September.

JESUS COMFORTS HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 14:1-31.

GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."—John 14:6.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Heavenly Home.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Walking in Christ's Way.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Comforts His Disciples.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Sources of the Christian's Comfort.

The hopes of the disciples were utterly shattered when Jesus told them about the cross. Jesus had told them that He was going away, and that they could not follow Him. Their hearts were flooded with grief. He consoled them by

I. Pointing to the Reunion in the Father's House (vv. 1-3).

1. He Asks Them to Trust in Him Even as God (v. 1). Faith in the God man, Christ Jesus, will relieve the heart, no matter how intense the grief or how great the sorrow.

2. He Informed Them That He Was Going to the Father's House in Heaven to Prepare a Home for Them (v. 2). He assured them that there was abundant room for all. Heaven is an eternal dwelling place.

3. He Assured Them That He Would Come Again and Escort Them to Heaven (v. 3). Jesus will not wait for His own to come to Him, but will come and call forth from the graves those who have died, and translate living believers, and take them all to be with Himself in the heavenly home forevermore (I Thess. 4:16-17).

II. Revealing the Way to the Father's House (vv. 4-11).

Jesus informed the disciples that they knew the place to which He was going and the way. To this Thomas interposed a doubt, in answer to which Christ asserts that He is

1. The Way to God (v. 6). He is something more than a mere guide or teacher. He is the way itself. He is the door of the sheep-fold.

2. The Truth (v. 6). He is not merely the teacher, but the truth incarnate. In His incarnation the spiritual and material worlds were united, therefore every line of truth, whether spiritual or material converges in Him. No one who does not have Christ can ever have the real truth about anything. In Him we have the truth about man, that he is, what he ought to be, and what he shall be in eternity. In Him especially we have the truth about God.

3. The Life (v. 6). Christ is not merely the giver of life, but He is the essence of life. Only those who receive Christ have life in the true sense. Since He is God incarnate, to know Him is to know God.

III. Assuring Them That His Work Was to Continue (vv. 12-14).

Jesus' going away was not to end the work which He had begun. This no doubt meant that through the ministry of the Spirit-filled disciples, the work which Christ began would assume larger proportions. There would be a much greater number of converts than under His ministry. After the Day of Pentecost the gospel did take a much wider range. During His ministry the message was confined to the Jews, while under the ministry of the disciples it was only limited by the world itself. The disciples' ministry was ushered in by the conversion of three thousand on one day.

IV. Promises Another Comforter (vv. 12-31).

The Spirit, comforter means literally one called to the side of another to give help, protection and deliverance. This comforter was the Holy Spirit. Jesus was the Comforter while here on the earth. The Holy Spirit was to be "another comforter."

V. Assuring Them of His Return to Them (vv. 18-24).

Although Christ went away He did not leave His disciples as orphans. The Father and the Son make their abode with the disciples who love and obey Jesus Christ.

VI. Assuring Them That the Holy Spirit Would Aid Them in Remembering and Understanding His Words (vv. 25-30).

The Holy Spirit does by illuminating the minds of the disciples.

VII. Giving the Legacy of His Peace (vv. 27-31).

By His peace is meant the serenity of soul which one enjoys who is reconciled to God, who knows that his sins are forgiven.

Doing Better

It is not a question of how much we are to do, but of how it is to be done. It is not a question of doing more, but of doing better.—John Ruskin.

Duty

Do the duty that lies nearest thee; which thou knowest to be a duty! The second duty will already become clearer.—Carlyle.

Tomorrow

Where is tomorrow? In another world. To numbers this is certain. The reverse is sure to none.

Sorrow and Joy

Worldly joy rests in sorrow; godly sorrow ends in joy.

VERA

Did you see the eclipse? It was quite generally observed in this vicinity.

The farmers of this neighborhood are already burning plant-beds preparatory to another tobacco crop—a great many of them are following the timely directions sent out by our enterprising agent, W. H. Byrne, as a preventative of wildfire and other diseases.

We are glad to note that Messrs. Thomas and Robert Megginson are dragging the road between Liberty Chapel and Vera. The road between those places had become almost impassable. The dragging should do a great deal of good.

Leighton Hatcher visited friends a Roanoke last week.

Miss Violet Nuttycombe, who has been visiting friends at Glad stone, the past three weeks, is at home, again much to the gratification of her many friends.

Mrs. Lawrence Hatcher expects to visit her brother, Wiley Garrett in Richmond, this week.

Mrs. Trent, of Spring Mills, is visiting her son, Thomas Trent, here.

Mrs. Thomas Trent has been quite sick. We trust she will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Carter have had a very sick child; it is better at this writing we are glad to say.

Dr. H. B. Foster and brother, Doad Foster, motored here from Littleton, N. C., Sunday—they report the roads as something fierce, they left for home Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Foster and baby Margaret, who spent the holidays with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinnear. Miss Nan Spindlin also accompanied them, where she will spend some time as guest of Mrs. Foster.

John Bingham who is in a Lynchburg hospital is reported much better.

Mr. Chenault father of Jesse Chenault, of this community, died after an illness of only ten hours. Mr. Chenault has the sympathy of his neighbors.

Misses Ida and "Neal" Jones will board with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Childers the remainder of the winter—they wil prove quite an adjunct to our social circles.

A romance, which had its beginning through the columns of a matrimonial journal, had its denouement on Wednesday the 21 when Mr. Sedgwick, of Texas, led to the altar Miss Mallie Bagby of this neighborhood. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for their home in Texas—may the God of love and plenty strew their pathway with flowers and prosperity is the wish of their many friends.

EVERGREEN

Omer Burnette, who has been visiting relatives in Green County has returned home.

Miss Marks, our teacher here reports a splendid attendance during the bad weather.

The Billy Sunday Club here held a very interesting prayer meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night.

Miss Ora Harvey and Dillard Baker were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage Friday afternoon. Their many friends wish for them a long and happy life together.

Mr. W. B. Harvey and children have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall and children, from Green County are visiting their parents Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Burnette.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cralle, of Lynchburg, were week-end guests of her sister, Mrs. Hudson Fleshman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Farrar, of Church Roads, were called to the bed side of his mother, Mrs. W. C. Farrar.

FOREST VIEW

There has been so much ice in January guess we, will have a fine fruit year as the old adage goes "Heavy ice, heavy fruit year,

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. S. B. Harvey. She was the life of her neighborhood and we know her friends and church will miss her. The family have our sympathy.

The people are reading the political part of the Times-Virginian and it has been said by many "Let's see that Mr. Glass is run independent of every one else as Governor of Va." We like the Mapp views that there are too many useless officers being supported by the tax-payers.

The roads are very rough. It is a hard matter for people to pass one another in the Red House road as the ruts are worn so deep it is hard to get out of one, after getting in it once. We hope it will be dragged or scraped as soon as possible.

Mr and Mrs. B. C. Sims spent last Wednesday p. m. in the home of R. W. Martin and took their little daughter Nellie with them back. She had been staying with her grandparents a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woolridge.

Miss Bessie Martin has been very ill with double pneumonia in Lynchburg since Xmas. Her sister Mrs. Annie Odor, has been with her several weeks and her mother, Mrs. R. W. Martin spent a few days with her last week. She is much better, we are glad to say and will be able to be brought home in a few days.

Mesdames Henry Burnett and Otey Jones spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Farmer.

I think $15,00 is a very small sum for the set of answers to Who's Who in Lynchburg? It is worth that to write the answers beside getting them up.
